B2 British English Course

This course is designed for upper-intermediate learners of the English language in the British English variant. The course is designed around the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) guidelines for B2 level descriptors.

The course comprises 13 units and provides components of theory, production, and freer practice of the four skills of language learning: Speaking, Listening, Reading, and Writing.

Each unit focuses on a discrete function, grammar topic, lexical set, or a combination these, and are assessed at the end of each unit in speaking and writing assignments designed for the learner to produce and personalise the target language as the course progresses.

The course uses a range of multimedia; including flash animation, video, audio, virtual classes and written texts, to provide an authentic context for language learning.

* Key language functions include: likes / dislikes, recommendations, suggesting, offering, giving directions, giving advice, expressing possibility, formal telephone conversations, complaining, buying / returning / exchanging a product, expressing an opinion, agreeing / disagreeing, talking about crime and punishment, expressing result / purpose, talking about physical resemblance, and expressing wishes and regrets.

* Key grammar topics include: adverbs of frequency, indirect questions, present simple vs. present continuous, so / such, past simple vs. past continuous, narrative tenses, used to + infinitive vs. would + infinitive, the + comparative, comparatives of equality, present perfect simple vs. continuous, just / already / yet, prepositions of place and time, indefinite pronouns, be going to + infinitive, will shall, present continuous to express future, modal verbs, reflexive pronouns, quantifiers, zero / first / second conditionals, either / neither, both / none, time expressions / adverbs, question tags, past perfect simple vs. continuous, articles, gerund vs. infinitive, relative clauses, discourse markers, future time clauses, future continuous vs. future perfect, the passive voice, third / mixed conditionals, reporting verbs, causative, and prepositions of time and place.
